

CAIRNS CRUISING YACHT SQUADRON – ANIMAL BY-LAWS

For the convenience and safety of all members, proper control of any animal on CCYS property is required by all members at all times. Failure to comply with these By-laws may see your membership suspended or terminated as per our constitution.

Animal By-laws

1. No dogs, cats, birds, reptiles or any other type of animal shall be allowed by their owner to enter the food serving areas of the clubhouse. Exception to this will be a person accompanied by a legitimate assistance dog.
2. No dogs, cats, birds, reptiles or any other type of animal shall be allowed by their owner to roam freely about the grounds of the CCYS.
3. Any animal in the company of a member must be restrained by a leash, and shall not be allowed to roam.
4. Any faeces must be attended to immediately by the owner.
5. Failure to comply with the above direction will result in the CCYS seeking assistance from the City Council Dog Control Authority. Any expenses incurred in controlling these animals will be charged to the owner.
6. Any fine the CCYS may incur from failure to comply with the above will be paid by the owner of the animal.
