

CAIRNS CRUISING YACHT SQUADRON – FLAG BY-LAWS

CCYS flies the Australian Flag and Club Burgee under the usual terms of courtesy.

1. The flags outside the Clubhouse at the front entrance may be left up at all times, with the Australian Flag being flown at the most Naval position, ie. on the gaff pole, and the CCYS Burgee being flown directly above.
2. Deaths of members of the Squadron or prominent persons should be accorded respect by lowering the flags to half-mast.
3. ANZAC Day the flag shall be flown at half-mast till noon, then at peak for the remainder of the day.
